Ps, im not beggin it, an article has been released they all know now k... .

Alhamdulillah perhaps u all can see the true side of us and inshaAllah be guided here.
